

POLITICAL

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 11PM

TYPE: News

DATE: 5.1.10

DESCRIPTION: Thousands gathered together today to call for immigration reform. The immigration controversy is heating up. A late night shooting in Arizona involving illegal immigrants is adding to this hot issue.

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 11 PM

TYPE: News

DATE: 6.14.10

DESCRIPTION: The President will address the nation tomorrow on the Gulf oil disaster. The public is frustrated that it is taking so long to stop the leak. There are a lot of ideas out there on what to do – and some are coming from Las Vegas. A UNLV Physics professor says he is still trying to get someone at BP to listen to his ideas. There is a concern that the priorities have shifted and that BP is not taking these ideas seriously – even though they have an option on their website for open suggestions from the public.

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 11 PM

TYPE: News

DATE: 6.16.10

DESCRIPTION: A political battle is brewing in Henderson over a gravel pit. Thousands of people are very upset that the gravel pit plan will permanently change the landscape of their community. Folks turned out to protest hundreds of acres of land being converted into this gravel pit.

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 11 PM

TYPE: News

DATE: 6.17.10

DESCRIPTION: Sharon Angle has been accused of hiding from the local media, but tonight the US Senate Republican nominee returned to Las Vegas for the first time since her overwhelming victory in last week's primary. Hundreds turned out to see her do a radio interview with a nationally syndicated conservative talk show host. The local media finally had a chance to speak with the candidate that wants to unseat Harry Reid in November.

###
